Boost Your Bottom Line: MassMEP Holds Business & Breakfast Seminar

Breakfast Event Held on August 16th at Attleboro's Highland Country Club for Manufacturers Interested in MassMEP's Products and Services

Learn what innovative products and programs the Massachusetts Manufacturing Extension Partnership (MassMEP) can offer your company at the Business & Breakfast event on Thursday, August 16th from 7:30 a.m. – 9:00 a.m. at the Highland County Club in Attleboro, MA. Glenn Gertridge of MassMEP, Suzanne M. Bump, Secretary of Labor and Workforce Development, Roland Dion of local jewelry manufacturer E.A. Dion, and Patricia Auerbach, Bristol Workforce Investment Board, will outline business programs, including the Workforce Training Grants offered in Massachusetts, as well as the unique Performance Based Training Services of MassMEP and how their products can benefit your company. As a client of MassMEP, Dion will give a first-hand account of the successes his company has achieved through work with MassMEP.

Since 2000, MassMEP clients have reported $473.4 million in increased and retained sales and $109.5 million in cost savings for their companies. To better impact your bottom line and stay competitive with other manufacturing companies in Massachusetts, join MassMEP for this event. To participate, RSVP to the Attleboro Area Chamber of Commerce at 508-222-0801. Members of the Highland Country Club pay $15 to attend the breakfast, while non-members pay $25.

For any additional questions, please contact Kathie Mahoney at MassMEP at 508-831-7020 or e-mail kathiem@massmep.org.
