

"I thought you might appreciate this blurb from what is known as "The Governor's Daily Update" sent around to employees all across the Commonwealth." Jack Healy is in the back row, second from the right.

In the Press:

Governor Patrick and Economic Summit participants discuss the outcomes of their day-long discussions at the Boston Federal Reserve Bank yesterday.

- Strategies for Growth: Economic Summit – Following a day-long Economic Summit that brought business, education, non-profit and policy leaders from across Massachusetts together to focus on ways to collaboratively turn the state's economy around, Governor Patrick said: "We talked about our economic strategy for growth, based on education, on innovation, on infrastructure investment, on regional equity and regional focus," he said. The summit featured working groups on federal stimulus funds, expanding access to capital and support for small businesses and business expansion. The Governor intends to introduce working group proposals, including details about a fund to provide small businesses with the capital they need to grow and create jobs, over the next 30 to 90 days. The impact of those initiatives on the economy will be felt over the next 18 months.

- Read more in the Boston Globe, the Boston Herald, the Associated Press, the Worcester Telegram and on WCVB.
- Watch more on NECN and listen on WBUR.

Kofi Jones
Director of Communications and External Affairs
Executive Office of Housing and Economic Development
617-788-3652
617-721-2231 (cell)
kofi.jones@state.ma.us

"Technology and Innovation, Opportunities for Individuals and Families, Strong Communities, and Prosperous Regions"